First Baptist Opelika Christian School requires all parents to attend the annual orientation meeting and the teaching parent to attend the mid-year progress meeting. If parents are unable to attend any mandatory meeting, they must notify the administrator at least one week prior to the required meeting to schedule a conference at the cost of $25 due at time of conference. The conference must be scheduled within 30 days of the missed meeting. Scheduling the conference is the responsibility of the teaching parent. Members who do not comply with this policy will be dismissed.
